FESTIVE FEASTING 2019

BALLYVOLANE HOUSE

Historic House - Extraordinary Setting

FEAST AND MAKE MERRY THIS WINTER AT BALLYVOLANE HOUSE

Enjoy festive dinners in the run up to Christmas with friends, family and work colleagues. Ballyvolane House is an ideal place to make merry and feast this coming December. Only 30 minutes by car from Cork city, Ballyvolane is nestled deep in the beautiful north Cork countryside. Originally built in 1728, the house was remodelled in Victorian times to give it a more Italianate style and the house is stuffed with family heirlooms, portraits and antiques. Ballyvolane House can accommodate gatherings of all sizes with small groups in the House and larger groups in the dining terrace and bar within our converted barn. Don't worry about driving home and stay the night. Special discounted room rates available. Transport to and from the house can be arranged as well.

EVENTS AT BALLYVOLANE HOUSE THIS CHRISTMAS:

FAULTY TOWERS DINING EXPERIENCE

Dates: Saturday 7th December & Saturday 14th December

Time: doors at 7pm, show at 7:30pm

Chaos greets audiences as soon as they walk through the front door of the main house. In this fully immersive experience, the audience become diners in the infamous 'Faulty' restaurant, served a 3-course meal by Basil, Sybil and Manuel. Guests can enjoy drinks in the main house on arrival then Basil will lead guests to their tables in the dining terrace as soon as everyone has arrived. Expect lashings of laughter, huge bowls full of spontaneity and as much participation as individual audience members want. And with 70% of the show improvised, no two performances are ever the same.
